Club Festival Awards

AWARD	WINNER	REASON
Alf Appleton Trophy	Not awarded
The Gnome	Graham Coates	For spending more time falling into the goal or off the pitch than on it!
Torbay Tornado	Stuart Skinner	Most outstanding player.
Attitude Award	Rocky	In recognition of Rocky's ability to add vomit into a jug of snakebite at the same rate as he was drinking it!

Weekend Highlights

1. Twenty two Torbay tourists hanging around B&Q carpark for 50 minutes whilst cars were made road worthy and babies fed and cleaned up!
2. Hardened drinkers meeting up at Vince & Rocky's caravan to play "chase the ace" and wondering precisely what card Jack Chandler was chasing.
3. Flanagan's being the last to arrive on Thurs - no different to match day then!
4. Watching the vultures at Inn on the Quay attacking the food before the meals touched the tables!
5. Meet the Fokkers (Martin Halls, Rob Reid, Ben Link, Jack Chandler & Tom Walter) won the quiz and survived an investigation into cheating.
6. Despite a number of teams in the quiz correctly identifying a morphed photo of Sarah, the Flanagan boys failed to recognise their wife and mother and even worse thought that it was actually a photo of Borris! Mistaken identity may go a long way in explaining why most of Neil's passes were going to the opposition last season – only joking Neil!
7. In the early hours of Saturday morning, Rocky took on a challenge from Vince to down two jugs of snakebite. Although he managed the 1st, the 2nd jug proved impossible since it was self filling. Whatever Rocky drunk, he returned with interest in the form of human vomit. Big C filmed the event, including the sound of Scott Mcilquham & Mark Browning retching in the background.
8. Tom Godding having to wear the "silly hat" during the games on Sat as punishment for falling over the corner flag the day before.
9. Mixed hockey game at Teignmouth against Dart HC gave our ladies a welcomed opportunity to play some hockey over the weekend (Sara Thompson, Lauren Link, Hannah Foster-Turner, Dee Thompson and Kelly Ashford).

10. Cheap drinks and tasty food (BBQ) at Brandize Hotel on the sat. Cokes were originally priced at 30p a pint until Shaun Cullimore told hotel staff that was too cheap and instead suggested a £1. Guess what drink my clan were primarily drinking - thanks Shaun!
11. Tom Walter was subjected to the traditional 3 man lift and spoons late Sat evening. This year the 3 man lift team garnished the “water down the pants” with Morrison tea bags.
12. Ben Link for scoring our only hat-trick – guesting for Avengers against Cleevillians!
13. Vince failed to turn up at Teignmouth for Sun games – still well over the limit for driving or playing!
14. Rocky collapsing in the early hours of Sun morning setting off a medical panic. Matters made worse when it became impossible to differentiate between his slowness to respond or react then and what is his norm!
15. Awards night & club meal at Waterside Pub on Sun evening.
16. If there is a maximum weight limit for caravan’s, then this was undoubtedly broken on the last night when in excess of 20 people gathered in Vince & Rocky’s van for drinks, crisps and the odd smoke!
17. Finally on a hockey note, there were an impressive 22 different goal scorers for our combined men’s and colts teams!
